information system maintained by the office that contains the following information:

(1) Geographic and population information provided in the official census report to the state by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in reporting the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(2) Election history and supplemental geographic information compiled by the legislative services agency.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "house district" refers to a district of the house of representatives of the general assembly described in IC 2-1-10.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "office" refers to the office of census data of the legislative services agency.

Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, "senate district" refers to a district of the senate of the general assembly described in IC 2-1-11.

Sec. 7. (a) Any part of Indiana that has not been described as included in a house or senate district is included within the house or senate district that:

(1) is contiguous to the part; and

(2) contains the least population of all house or senate districts contiguous to that part according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(b) If any part of Indiana is described as being in more than one (1) house or senate district, the part is included within the house or senate district that:

(1) is one (1) of the house or senate districts in which the part is listed in IC 2-1-10 or IC 2-1-11, whichever is applicable;

(2) is contiguous to the part; and

(3) contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(c) If any part of Indiana:

(1) is described in IC 2-1-10 or IC 2-1-11 as being in one (1) house or senate district; and

(2) entirely surrounded by another house or senate district; the part shall be incorporated into the house or senate district that surrounds the part.

(d) If any part of Indiana:

(1) is described as being in one (1) house or senate district; and

(2) is not contiguous to another part of the house or senate district that contains the majority of the population in the house or senate district;

the part is included with the contiguous house or senate district that contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

Sec. 8. Indiana is divided into one hundred (100) house districts as described in IC 2-1-10. From each of these districts there shall be elected one (1) representative of the house of representatives of the Indiana general assembly.

Sec. 9. (a) Indiana is divided into fifty (50) senate districts as described in IC 2-1-11. From each of these districts there shall be elected one (1) senator of the senate of the Indiana general assembly.

(b) Each senator elected in the general election in 2000 for a full four (4) year term shall continue to hold office until the term for which the senator was elected has expired by limitation, and the senator shall represent the district established under this chapter in which the senator's legal residence is located.

Sec. 10. The legislative services agency shall separately maintain and preserve in the GIS the descriptions and maps included in the 2000 decennial census of Indiana. The legislative services agency shall make those descriptions and maps available for public inspection during regular office hours and on the Internet.

Sec. 11. The official report and all official documents relating to the report of the 2000 decennial census are incorporated by reference into this article.

SECTION 2. IC 2-1-10 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS
